Although down in numbers from last year, the Jervis Bay White Sands Tournament went off smoothly with a number of very happy anglers. 31 clubs were represented with one angler flying all the way from Perth to attend. Not a huge number of fish although the Kingies were abundant accompanied by a number of Sharks including a Great White tagged. There were also a couple of Striped Marlin and a solitary Yellowfin. The new radio set up in the Clubhouse using channel 81 worked brilliantly.

2018 brings us the Batemans Bay Tollgate Island Classic January 19-21, followed by the Bermagui Blue Water Classic January 26-28. February then kicks off with the Ulladulla Jess Sams February 2-4, followed by the Eden Open February 16-18 which is a change from the original date.

Then of course there is the NSWGFA Interclub February 23-25. With the change to a three day event numbers were up this year and I hope we get a good number of Southern Zone boats again in 2018. It was a change worth making and proved very popular with all the participants.

Another reminder to get your nominations to me for the NSWGFA Junior Team. We have some terrific juniors in our Zone and they deserve the experience of fishing in the NSWGFA team. Deadline 30th January 2018.

Merry Christmas to you all with a healthy and happy year ahead. Sanchia.
