Another very quiet month as the seasons change and the water starts to turn over. There have already been a few Marlin encountered in early December and I am sure we are all hoping that it is a good season for them this year.

The NSW interclub entries are out and it would be great to get a few extra boats from the zone to represent. Entries need to be with club secretaries by early January. I am happy to assist anyone that would like to go with information and help organising their trip.

January also sees the tournament season get into full swing with Batemans Bay and Bermagui both having their tournaments towards the end of the month followed by Ulladulla and Shellharbour in early February. It is a timely reminder to try and get your club boats to support as many tournaments as possible, the comradery and friendships that develop on these weekends is what our sport is built on and we need to support each and every club.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a very merry Christmas and happy new year. Stay safe over the holiday period and I look forward to catching up with many of you throughout the tournament calendar.

Stay safe and tight lines
Steve
