My apologies for the late results but I only got back last night from a week in Noosa.

Unfortunately with the weather forecasts not being too good, Shoalhaven cancelled their tournament. Eden's was on the same weekend and went ahead with the first day cancelled due to gale warning but the next two fishable. Kiama also had another successful event. The next ones coming up are Merimbula Open on the 6-8 May and then the Canberra Yellowfin Tournament 14-16 May.

Not a lot of captures last month but a good showing in tag and release. We are getting to the end of the season so try and get as many points for our Zone as you can.

Stay safe and enjoy your fishing.
