Only the one boat scoring any points for September which was a surprise as there were plenty of good fish caught obviously just not on Zone days.

Jervis Bay are hosting the White Sands Tournament this weekend and for once the weather looks like it will be favourable which is great. I unfortunately cannot be there but wish everyone well for the weekend and just another reminder to monitor social media posting with regards to social distancing rules.

The warm water is starting to push down and there have been a few Blue Marlin and Yellowfin caught off Sydney in the last week or so, we had 21.6 degrees last weekend and the water clarity was on the improve. Hopefully it won't be long before we see the summer species start to turn up.

Hopefully I will have a bit more work to do with next months returns..

Stay safe and tight lines
Steve
